Co-Manager

Alyssa is beyond excited to be joining the Flames in her first full season as Co-Manager.

Though not an athlete herself, she is an avid sports fan, with hockey holding the number 1 place in her hearts. Her passion for hockey has taken her to 9 NHL arenas so far and in the future she also hopes to become a hockey mom.

The 2017-2018 academic year also marks her first full year as a full-time French teacher at St. Mary's Academy
