

Alyssa Ross Trainer

Alyssa is a full-time student and Athletic Therapy Certification Candidate attending the University of Winnipeg. She is in her third year of the four-year Bachelor of Science Athletic Therapy program. This is Alyssa's second season as the trainer for the team.

Athletic Therapy experience and involvement in sports:

- 2014-2015 Trainer for the Grande Prairie Storm Major Midget AAA hockey team in Grande Prairie, AB
- 2015 Trainer for Team Alberta Top 80 U16 Male Hockey camp in Camrose, AB
- 2015 Volunteer at the ParaPan Am Games in Toronto, ON
- 2015 Trainer for Team NWT female hockey trials in Fort Smith
- 2015 Trainer for the Yellowknife Wolfpack hockey team
- 2017 Medical Personnel – Mission Staff for Team NWT at the North American Indigenous Games in Toronto, ON

Alyssa graduated in 2015 with a Diploma in Personal Training from Grande Prairie Regional College in Grande Prairie, AB where she worked with a hockey team during her studies. Alyssa also obtained her certification as a CSEP-CPT.

After graduation Alyssa returned to her home community of Inuvik, NT where she worked for the Government of the Northwest Territories. In September 2016 she continued her studies at the University of Winnipeg.

